“Belt and Road Conference – Tapping Belt and Road Opportunities in the Greater Bay Area” held on October 29, 2018 was co-organized by Silk Road Economic Development Research Centre and China Daily.

Keynote addresses were delivered by Mr. Matthew Cheung Kin-chung, GBM, GBS, JP, Chief Secretary of the Government of Hong Kong SAR; and Mr. H.E. Rashid Alimov, Secretary, Secretary-General, The Shanghai Cooperation Organisation, and various distinguished speakers were invited for panel discussions.

As the supporting organization, Kaisun believed that Hong Kong is well positioned for tapping Belt and Road Opportunities in Greater Bay Area. Through sharing and discussion by guests and attendees, potential opportunities in Greater Bay Area and Belt and Road initiative can be explored.

During the conference, Mr. Joseph Chan gave the welcoming remarks. Mr. Chan mentioned that Hong Kong's quick recovery from the recent attack by typhoon Mangkhuk demonstrated the city's competencies and capabilities in handling crisis and our sound infrastructure built by world class engineers sustain well even under devastating typhoon.
