

Mr. Joseph Chan, Kaisun’s Chairman, joined “Hong Kong Business and Professional Delegation to Malaysia and Thailand” and attended the opening ceremony for the Yau Tsim Mong Multicultural Activity Centre

Mr. Joseph Chan, Kaisun’s Chairman, joined the business delegation led by Mr. Edward Yau Tang-wah, the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development of the Hong Kong Government. Around 50 members of business and professionals from Hong Kong joined this visit to Malaysia and Thailand from 25th to 29th November 2019.

The delegation visited Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) and Bangkok (Thailand) on 25th and 27th November respectively. On 29th November, Hong Kong chief executive Carrie Lam joined the delegation and co-chaired the first meeting of the Hong Kong-Thailand High-Level Joint Committee (HJLC) in Bangkok together with Deputy Prime Minister Somkid Jatusripitak.

Six memorandum of understanding on strengthening economic relations were signed.

On 14th December, 2019, Mr. Joseph Chan attended the opening ceremony for the Yau Tsim Mong Multicultural Activity Centre. Mr. Lau Kong-wah, the Secretary for Home Affairs was one of the guests of honor and gave a welcome speech.

As one of the Signature Project Scheme (SPS) of Yau Tsim Mong District, the Yau Tsim Mong Multicultural Activity Centre aims at promoting multiculturalism and advancing community cohesion.

Located at 59 Battery Street, Jordan, starting this October, the Centre provides services such as venue rental, translation, cultural exchange activities and training programmes. In addition, different types of shops in the Centre offer business or job opportunities, providing one-stop social services for new arrivals, ethnic minorities and the disabled.

By promoting racial harmony through this Centre, we believe greater inclusiveness will foster community cohesion, leading to development of healthy community.
